ELECTION RETURNS.

Complete Returns Will Be Announced at the Gazette Office.

The Gazette office will remain open this evening for the purpose of receiving the election returns, which will be announced as soon as the canvass is completed. The public is cordially invited to call in and hear the result.

CHIEFLETS.

—Have you voted?
—J. H. Middaugh, of Chicago, is in the city.

—It wasn't enough of an election day to close the banks.

—Miss Kate Regan, of Madison, is a guest of Mrs. Charles T. Peirce.

—Foundations are being laid for an additional coal house at the pumping station.

—Smith's orchestra will play for a party of the United Order of Brakemen at Baraboo to-night.

—Dr. O. G. Bennett, formerly with Dr. Thor Judd, contemplates opening an office on the west side.

—The Philharmonic Club will meet in the Sunday school room of the Congregational church this evening.

—Frank Timms, a twelve year old boy living in the second ward, was taken to the Mendota insane asylum to-day.

—The Business Men's Association picked a quorum of members last evening, consequently no meeting was held.

—Miss Mary Wiggins will spend her two weeks vacation visiting her brother, Dr. Twing Wiggins, and wife, in Chicago.

—The Torgersons held a pleasant social dancing party last evening at Anderson's orchestra furnishing the music.

—Western Star Lodge No. 14, F. and A. M., assembled in regular semi-monthly communication this evening at Masonic hall.

—Janesville City Lodge No. 90, I. O. O. F., assembled in regular weekly session this evening at Odd Fellows hall, North Main street.

—Charles H. Marvin, son of Mrs. Maria O. Fellows, of the third ward, left for Rochester, Minnesota, to-day, to engage in farming.

—Mrs. John F. Drake, of the fourth ward, has gone to Bloomington, Illinois, called there by the dangerous illness of her daughter, Mrs. M. H. Hamblin.

—Oriental Lodge No. 22, Knights of Pythias, assembled in regular weekly meeting this evening at Oastle hall, Jefferson block, West Milwaukee street.

—Will T. Sherer expects before long to sit under his own vine and fig tree. He is looking for an available location, and a new west side drug store may soon be expected.

—Two private fire hydrants were put in on the property of the Janesville Machine Company to-day. Four feet and six inches of frost were encountered in reaching the main.

—Mr. Robert Bestwick, of the dry goods firm of J. M. Bestwick & Sons, has returned home from the east where he has been for some weeks purchasing new goods for the spring trade.

—The funeral services over the remains of Mr. J. M. Schnell will occur on Thursday afternoon at two o'clock from the residence on Milton avenue, instead of Wednesday as at first announced.

—There was no quorum at the common council chamber last evening, consequently no meeting of the council.

—Aldermen Carpenter, Fatters, C. C. McLean and Smith were present at roll call.

—In publishing the bids for building the proposed second ward school house, on Saturday, a mistake occurred in that of Mr. Edward Rathem, being the transposing of two figures. His bid was published as $12,347; it should read $12,437. A slight difference.

—Chester Tittle now has his headquarters in the Fredendall block on Court street. He makes a specialty of house painting, calendering and paper hanging and promises that all orders will be promptly attended to. Orders may be left at the shop or at Fredendall's grocery.

—Mrs. E. Fuller, mother of Mr. S. W. Habbell, 108 Pearl street, first died, died at five o'clock this morning. She was born at Saratoga, New York, in 1810, and came to Wisconsin in 1814. The funeral will be held at the home of her son at two o'clock on to-morrow (Wednesday) afternoon.

—Those of our citizens who heard the Schubert Quartette at the Senior concert in Holist last year express themselves as delighted with them and anxious to hear them again. They never fail to please. Tickets will be fifty cents for sale by Prentice & Evenson, R. W. King and A. F. Hall & Co.

—There was a large number of young people in attendance at the charity ball given last night by the St. Patrick's T. A. & B. Society, at the Armory. Smith's orchestra furnished the music, and an excellent supper was served at Meador's Bower City restaurant. The young people enjoyed themselves, as they always do at these parties.

—The "Jolly Pathfinders" drew a very good sized audience at Lappin's hall last evening. "Six Puss in a Pot" did not amount to much and the company failed to leave a very good impression on the audience. The band of music accompanying the troupe is a good one, and rendered some very fine music previous to the performance, in front of the hall.

—Notwithstanding good work done by all the candidates, the most notable run of the day was made by a horse driven by J. B. Doe, Jr. The horse was left standing at the depot for a moment, and started down town. He was given the right of way on West Milwaukee street without the least dispute, but the middle of the street soon became monotonous; on River street he turned to the sidewalk. A moment later it seemed to be raining shoes, two packing boxes belonging to Trulson & Peterson were being smashed and the contents scattered in every direction. The runaway seemed likely to end by making a plunge through King's show window, but Marshal Egan put in an appearance just in time. The only damage done was to Trulson & Peterson's shoes and to a pile of toys at Britton & Kimball's. Neither the horse nor the buggy were hurt in any way.

AN ENJOYABLE MUSICAL.

Miss Mattie Benedict's National Charming Entertainment.

A Private musicale was given by Miss Mattie Benedict to a number of her friends in this city last evening. It was thoroughly enjoyable and merited the warmest of praise.

The first number on the programme—a piano solo by Miss Benedict—was announced soon after eight o'clock. It was followed by a vocal solo by Miss Kate Toulson, of Port Atkinson, Professor S. H. Hayer accompanying on the violin.

Miss Lucy Twitchell, of Port Atkinson, played with much grace of expression, a fantasia on the air from "Mignon."

The other numbers on the musical programme were an artistically rendered violin solo by Prof. Hayer, a song by Miss Toulson, and a piano duo by Mrs. Stover and Miss Benedict. Mrs. J. B. Day was called on for a reading and responded with "Father Phil's Collection," and later in the evening with "How Ruby Played." Both selections were greeted with lively applause.

IN THE STRIKE SETTLED?

Orders on the C. & M. & St. P. to Handle Freight at Normal.

Agent Johnson, of the Milwaukee & St. Paul road, received word this afternoon to start all freight trains out once more in schedule time. The same order was sent to all agents of the road. It is inferred from this that the strike on the Milwaukee & St. Paul road, at least, is practically ended.

COURT STREET LITARY.

An Excellent Entertainment Presented Last Evening.

An audience completely filling the room assembled at Court Street church last evening to enjoy another of the semi-monthly literary entertainments, which have become so popular.

The programme presented was a good one, and met with thorough appreciation. A liberal display of talent within the society, was assisted by an orchestra from the School for the Blind, composed of Mrs. Jones and Messrs. Brooks and Garthwait who rendered some choice selections. Miss Grace Wright and Mr. Morris Zoskiw also contributed to the programme selected readings, which were thoroughly appreciated, while Miss Grace Embus, of Lake Mills, favored the audience with a spicy paper containing many local hits. The programme was good throughout. A paid entertainment will be given by the society two weeks from last evening.

THE ELECTION.

The Election Progressing Very Quietly—The Vote.

The election for city and ward officers is progressing very quietly in this city. The day has been very fine for an election and a large number of people have been at the different polling places all day, indicating that a large vote will be polled. There are a good many "split" tickets in the field, and the contest appears to be very close.

—The funeral services over the remains of Mr. J. M. Schnell will occur on Thursday afternoon at two o'clock from the residence on Milton avenue, instead of Wednesday as at first announced.

—There was no quorum at the common council chamber last evening, consequently no meeting of the council.

—Aldermen Carpenter, Fatters, C. C. McLean and Smith were present at roll call.

ANOTHER BLOODY CHAPTER.

The Horror of the Morse-Hazeltine Affair Heightened by a Second Murder.

W. W. Hazeltine Riddled with Buck-Shot in Stevens Point To-Day.

John Curran, an Intimate Friend of A. E. Morse Held for the Crime.

Special to the Gazette.

GRAND RAPIDS, Wis., April 3.—Another bloody chapter has been added to the Morse-Hazeltine affair. W. W. Hazeltine, the defendant in the murder trial at Stevens Point to-day. Death was instantaneous.

The man accused of the crime is John Curran. After the Morse murder trial was ended, Curran removed from Stevens Point to Grand Rapids, where he has since made his home.

This morning Curran went to Stevens Point, and as near as can be learned the two men met about ten o'clock and became engaged in an altercation. They were separated, but a few moments later a shot was heard and Hazeltine fell to the ground his body riddled by a heavy charge of buck shot. As stated before he died instantly.

Search was at once made for Curran by the excited citizens. Threats of violence were frequently heard, but before any of these threats could be carried out Curran gave himself up. He is now in jail. He denies having done the shooting, and says that he does not know who did it. There is much excitement throughout the city.

Curran is a son of G. W. Curran, owner of the Curran House at Stevens Point. He was an intimate friend of A. E. Morse and his name was associated with Morse's in the charges made by Hazeltine.

M. H. Morse, father of the late A. E. Morse, was found by a Gazette reporter at Johnston this afternoon. He had just received news of the shooting and was greatly agitated. When asked if something of the kind had not been feared for a long time he said:

"I think not. I believe it is as much a surprise to the people at Stevens Point as it was to me. John Curran was very bitter towards Hazeltine for having dragged him into court, but I never heard of his making threats of any kind. It is a terrible ending to a terrible affair, and I should prefer not to say anything about it. I have received any word from Curran since the shooting? Yes, or rather, I was just given a dispatch from a friend in Grand Rapids, who has been to see John and who says that he denies his guilt entirely. As to the details of the shooting, you know more than I."

ANOTHER ACCOUNT.

GRAND RAPIDS, April 3.—W. W. Hazeltine, A. E. Morse's murderer, was shot at Stevens Point to-day at noon by John Curran. Curran fired three times with a revolver and twice with a shot gun loaded with buck shot. Hazeltine was killed instantly.

TOBACCO IN HOVING.

Although Most of the Hatch Are in Chaper Grades.

Bailes, Heddies & Co.'s call for an unlimited quantity of fillers was not cut out its effect. Nearly eight car loads have been received since our last report. Most of the leaf came from southern Dan county and the extreme northern part of Rock.

Wrappers and binders are in good demand at from six to eight cents. Mr. E. Sovorhill, L. B. Carle, T. O. Green, J. A. Decker, Sutter Bros. and Eissbard & Godden are all in the market, but no large sales have been reported during the week.

Janesville is becoming a tobacco center of much importance. The Edgerton Reporter admits that either one of the two Janesville firms, J. A. Decker & Co. and Bailes, Heddies & Co. has packed more tobacco in the past seven months than any outside firm in the state.

New York reports state that fifty cases of Housatonic Valley wrappings were sold during the week at thirty-five cents. The United States Tobacco Journal remarks: "It is some time since the seed leaf has been sold exclusively under the denomination of wrappers and brought such a price. Whatever is moving of '86 Pennsylvania goods by the name of B's and O's, and about 300 cases of this kind have changed hands at an average of 11 cents. '86 Wisconsin is shipped in immense quantities abroad."

CREAK AND CUCKOOS.

To enable all parties interested to make a trip to the country reached by the Chicago & Northwestern railway system, and familiarize themselves with the splendid opportunities offered for settlement and investment, that company will run a series of cheap land excursions during the months of March, April, May and June. Tickets for these excursions will be sold from all principal stations to various points in Iowa, Minnesota, Dakota and Nebraska, at the very low rate of one fare for the round trip, and will be good for return passage at any time within thirty days from date of sale. For full particulars apply to agents of the C. & N. W. Ry., or write E. P. Wilson, General Passenger Agent, Chicago.

The Williams fruit farm of 35 acres; including 15 acres of small fruit, in fine condition, and buildings that cost about $4,000, can be bought now for $6,000. Immediate possession given. $3,000 of purchase money can remain on property at 6 per cent.
